

When Destiny Becomes Reality.

"Like those who dream..." Psalm 126:1

The following is a simple outline for the purpose of helping you prepare to take meaningful steps forward, so that you can engage a process that will give you great opportunity for your destiny to become a reality.

Here are scriptures to ponder in this process:

John 14:12, Matthew 16:18, Matthew 5:16, Colossians 1:27, Psalm 139, Jeremiah 1, Ephesians 2:10, 4:1

1. Preparation

A. Potential – Who am I?

- I. Questions to consider:
 - a) What is my God-given identity?
 - b) What is my personality type?
 - c) What is my DISC profile?
 - d) What are my strengths?
 - e) What are my passions?
 - f) Who are people I admire and why?
 - g) What are my values?
 - h) What are my gifts?

B. Promise – What do I believe?

- I. Questions to consider:
 - a) What do I need to believe about me and my destiny?
 - b) What am I believing that is hindering my growth?
 - c) How will my destiny bring honor to Jesus?
 - d) Is my destiny 'MY' destiny or am I living for someone else?
 - e) What are the reasons that support my belief about my destiny?

C. Passion – Will I own my destiny?

- I. Questions to consider:
 - a) Why do I believe my destiny is worth investing?
 - b) How high a price am I willing to pay to fulfill my destiny?

- c) What price will those I love have to pay?
- d) When will I communicate my destiny to those I love?
- e) What do I need from God to fulfill my destiny?
- f) What do I need from others to fulfill my destiny?
- g) What do I need from myself to fulfill my destiny?

2. Process

A. Purpose – What specifically am I called to do?

- I. Questions to consider:
 - a) How will my walking in my destiny help others?
 - b) Will I write down my destiny and establish deadlines so that my destiny becomes a measurable goal?
 - c) How does movement towards my destiny bring satisfaction?
 - d) In what areas do I need clarity about my destiny?
 - e) Who is walking in a destiny similar to mine and what can I learn from them?

Mark Twain said,
 “The two greatest days of your life are the day you were born and the day you discover why.”

B. Plan – Will I create steps and share them with others?

- I. Questions to consider:
 - a) No one achieves greatness alone, so who do I need that will support me in my plan?
 - b) What is my plan for overcoming disappointment, discouragement, disillusionment?
 - c) What is my plan for maintaining focus in busy seasons?
 - d) What will I do to ensure flexibility within the plan?
 - e) How will my talent, calling and gifting influence my plan?

C. Reality – What do I need to do today to move closer to fulfilling my destiny?

- I. Questions to consider:
 - a) What is my present position?
 - b) What actions am I taking that move me closer or further away from my destiny?
 - c) What options or changes should I consider?
 - d) What resources are available to me?
 - e) What do I need to say ‘no’ to, so I can fully say ‘yes’?
 - f) How will I embrace my challenges, so I see them as dream fillers and not dream killers?
